

Offering design, style and quality from a hand-made process factory with advanced technology

WHY CHOOSE ADEX?

FAMILY TRADITION SINCE 1897

A company with a proven track record. A company whose basis is technological innovation applied to production processes but rooted in tradition and history. ADEX, since 1897 at the service of its clients.

ADEX has been offering design, style and quality for almost 130 years from an artisanal factory, producing ceramic jewels that make your home a unique space, in which every detail is meticulously cared for, with the utmost love and dedication.

The fourth and fifth generation of ADEX continue to lead the company, with numerous recognitions and realizations worldwide that serve to highlight the versatility of adapting classic concepts to new times, as well as to the demands of each project.

QUALITY

To speak of ADEX is to speak of one of the most prestigious factories in ceramics sector that has made its name synonymous with exceptional quality. Very few companies in the ceramic world are capable of maintaining such high quality standards. In an environment where price competition has marked a path of progressive neglect of quality, ADEX remains a benchmark of commitment to a job well done.

PRESTIGE

ADEX products cover the walls of countless homes of great personalities, as well as celebrities from the world of cinema and entertainment; They have been seen in numerous films and television series; They incorporate a traditional handcraft work with soft brush strokes, and the wisdom inherited from our more than a century tradition.

EXCLUSIVENESS

Using ADEX tiles in interior design projects means to make a bet on a differentiated product. In an era of design standardization and mass production, this seal of distinction is what allows ADEX clients to feel part of a select group of people who maintain a taste for beauty.

UNIQUE DESIGN

It is an inherent part of ADEX products, in close alliance with the sense of exclusivity; without an outstanding design becomes impossible to be exclusive. The whole process of creating new designs is in-house developed.

CUSTOMER SERVICE

Focus on the customer, compliance with commitments, efficiency in management and evaluation of satisfaction in the purchasing process are inherent features of ADEX.

The experience accumulated over more than 125 years of work allows us to calibrate everything a client needs to feel satisfied.

WIDE RANGE OF PRODUCTS AND STYLES

The series that ADEX presents in its catalogue recover the splendour of traditional tiles, reflecting connotations of ceramic tradition carefully adapted and for use in contemporary design.

As a result, our ceramics transmit the wisdom and patience of authentic artisans and their good work.

WIDE RANGE OF COLORS AND MULTIPLE COMBINATION POSSIBILITIES

ADEX products are carefully designed so that they could be combined with each other, offering customers the possibility of creating unique decorations through the composition of different pieces and relying on its very wide range of colors. In this way it can be stated that with ADEX, any project is feasible in the style you wish.

ADAPTATION OF THE DESIGN TO EACH ONE OF THE DIFFERENT MARKETS

A global perspective combines fidelity to ADEX's own style with the ability to promptly adapt products to specific requirements. This allows us to work with the most diverse markets around the world.
